727 There was no "Capitol Riot". There was no BLM & Antifa riot instigator because there was no riot. Stop buy media's bullshit. Jan. 6th was ELECTION FRAUD PROTEST

Everyone participated in Jan. 6th deserves a medal for fighting against election fraud. That's it.

100% correct. I was there and there was no riot. It was an Election Fraud Protest. And there were 1mil people at the rally and about the same at the Capitol protesting the counting of illegitimate electors.

It's not right to say "there was no riot", as there are videos of people behaving in riot behavior

Nothing compared to the left Burning Looting and Murdering all summer, which the same media and politicians said was fine.

So when a small group "breaks in" and trespasses, and the vast majority stay outside and lawfully protest, it becomes a riot?

What's the threshold to go from protest to riot? .001%? GTFO. If it was real riot, with that number of people, the White House would still be burning.

I was there, there was no riot. It was a protest of a stolen election. There were 1mil people in DC that day, and the media keeps playing footage of the same few who were disruptive, and wont give the true figure of how many attended. Stop letting the media gaslight you. Jan 6th was an Election Fraud Protest, and not what the media wants to portray it as.

1 BLM/Antifa organizer livestreamed the entire thing. Worth watching. He tries to incite a riot. Tells people to burn down the capitol.Link

1 Yes, let's keep saying that enough until they BELIEVE it. Do unto them what they've have tried to do unto us.

1 There certainly was a riot on January 20, 2017, though.
